Mrs. Paul William Jensen

Miss Fleshman weds Mr. Jensen

The marriage of Miss Donna Marie Fleshman to Paul William Jensen took place on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 4, at two o'clock on the lawn at the home of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Darnell Fleshman of Evergreen. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weston Wayne Jensen of Monroe, La.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Edmond M. Terry, pastor of the Evergreen Baptist Church.

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown fashioned of sheer white organza over polyester featuring a bodice of Chantilly lace and Chantilly lace adorned the full bishop sleeves. The Queen Ann neckline was accented with silk Venice lace and tiny seed pearls. A full sunburst pleated skirt covered the attached chapel length train of Chantilly lace. A white satin belt with bows in the back accented the waistline.

The fingertip veil and matching headpiece were trimmed in imported silk Venice lace. She wore a pearl necklace belonging to the mother of the groom. Her cascade bouquet consisted of white roses, blue daisies, white carnations and white baby mums.

Miss Carolyn Grishaw, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an ankle length dress of midnight blue featuring a round neckline with a self-ruffled collar, elasticized waistline and full-length raglan sleeves gathered into buttoned cuffs. She carried a basket of daisies in fall colors.

Miss Angie White was bridesmaid. She wore a midnight blue dress identical to that of the maid of honor. She carried a basket of daisies in fall colors.

Mr. Waston W. Jensen was his son's best man. Larry Steve Fleshman, of Lynchburg, brother of the bride, was usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fleshman selected a street length dress of burgundy polyester with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Jensen, mother of the groom, wore a plum street length skirt with matching vest and white blouse with lace trim. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Attending the guest register was Melinda Fleshman, sister of the bride. Mrs. Brenda Harris and Mrs. Patricia Fleshamn served as mistresses of ceremonies.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the herb garden at the bride's home. Mrs. Ethel St. John served the wedding cake. Serving at the punch bowl and assisting guests were Mrs. Glenda White, Mrs. Margaret Grishaw, Mrs. Shirley Medley and Mrs. Helen Inge.

For their wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pa. the bride chose a burgundy dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.
